

April 6. 1827
Poros

My dear Lord,

I am extremely happy to tell you that all differences are ended between the two parties, that the general Assembly will take place tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock at Damala. The Deputies from here go there tonight so be ready for the Assembly in the morning. Both [1] parties seem equally pleased with the engagement by which the nation will be united in the general assembly.

I remain
my dear Lord
ever Yours
Keering