My Dear Lord

I am anxious to send off as soon as possible to collect the men that are in the islands of Sciathos, Scopelo & Dromi & to land them on the Continent for this expedition. You must be kind enough to give me a letter for the armaments Office of the Squadron off Volo. We should also require a transport with some provisions to be sent there. They require three small Vessels, but they were not aware that you had some left there. I send a confidential man to your Lordship for the letter which you will be kind enough to seal up & send to me. Tomorrow, I hope to see you either in the Camp or at Eleusis.

Ever Yours
