Poros April 16, 1827
To the Vice Admiral Spetzia

Sir,

In addition to the four Spetziote vessels already ordered for this expedition, I requested you will cause the small vessel of Nicholas Bouchoury or someone similar to be equipped and sent to this place without loss of time ~~delay~~.-

The necessary expenses will be paid on its arriving here. [] will he be good also as send the other ~~four~~ vessels especially the fireships with a moments delay.

Κύριε,

Εκτός των ήδη διορισμένων πλοίων, παρακαλείσθε να διατάξητε να ετοιμασθή και να σταλθή εδώ ευθύς, με είκοσι ανθρώπους ή μικρά γολέττα του Νικολάου Βούκαρη ή άλλην τινα παρόμοιαν. [1] Τα αναγκαία έξοδα θέλουν πληρωθή όταν έλθη εδώ. Παρακαλείσθε να μου στείλητε τα πρότερον διορισμένα πλοία, και εξαιρέτως τα πυρπολικά, χωρίς την παραμικράν αναβολήν. [2]

To Dr Bailly,

Poros 16th April 1827.

Sir,
understanding that certain ~~some~~ surgical instruments sent from Bavaria for the Greek service, and now in the hands of Colonel Hydecker, are not disposed of.
I should feel ~~exceedingly~~ obliged if you will ~~thought proper to direct that they should be considered~~ ~~that they~~ lend them to Dr Thomson, surgeon of the Greek Navy. He is about to proceed on service.
