My dear Lord
I will send the order to you in an Hour; the Kranidi People must be mistaken. I didn't know of your Lordship's arrangements. They shall be all regularly carried into execution as you wish then the - looking at your Lordship's letter again.
I keep your messenger until the order is written. I think the garrison of the Phalere may remain until we arrive there - that is the Hydriots [] the Kranidiots should like to keep on board, or the landed at Colouri until are reconnaitre together Karaiskakis in great haste.

Yours truly
Ever devoted
