September 25, 1827

Whereas I am informed by Sir Frederick Adam that Lord Cochran with the Greek Fleet, is about to embark the army of General Church, in the neighbourhood of Cape Papa, for the purpose of conveying them, to St. Quarante on the coast of Albania, You are hereby directed to proceed to that part and make known to the Commanders of that Expedition that I consider it my duty in the present state of affairs, to prevent such a measure being carried into execution; and that I shall shortly present myself in that neighbourhood [1] for that purpose.

To The Right Honourable Lord Viscount Ingestre Commander of His Majesty's Boat Philomel	Given on board the "Asea", at Navarin this 25th September 1827
By Command as the Vice Admiral (Signed) Henry S. Dyer Secretary	Signed Edward Codrington Vice Admiral
